You are invited to attend the upcoming National Mental Health Conference! This is the 8th year that the Mood Disorders Association of Manitoba has sponsored this conference, and we are looking forward to a fantastic event. This event is always particularly good due to the mixed group of participants who attend each year, the hands-on approach to learning, and the amazing speakers who come to share their knowledge and experience.

Keynote Speakers

Michelle Furguele

Survivor, Speaker and Social Advocate on Behalf of Human Trafficking Victims

Dr. Michael A. Hart, BSW, BA, MSW, PhD

Associate Professor
Canada Research Chair in Indigenous Knowledges and Social Work
University of Manitoba

Ainsley Krone, MA PC-IIC

Deputy Children’s Advocate (Acting)
Office of the Children’s Advocate

Ed Mantler, RPN, MSA, CHE

Vice President, Program and Priorities
Mental Health Commission of Canada

Senator Kimberly Pate

Senate of Canada
Ottawa, Ontario

*Each Keynote Speaker will also offer a small-group breakout session in the afternoon following the plenaries to allow for deeper discussion and questions around each topic.

PRE-CONFERENCE WORKSHOPS & BREAKOUT SESSIONS

Delegates can choose to attend one of four optional pre-conference workshops on Wednesday, March 21. During the conference, there will be five plenary sessions, and a choice of 12 breakout sessions for delegates to attend. With time for networking, meaningful conversations, and all-around excellent presentations, delegates will walk away from this conference feeling renewed, motivated and cared for. In addition to the exemplary Keynote speakers and informative breakout sessions, we also offer a hosted lunch followed by an entertaining, yet realistic, one-act play about surviving life with mental health issues.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Mental health professionals, educators, front-line workers, administrators, criminal justice personnel, social workers, law enforcement officers, corrections staff, psychologists, counsellors, therapists, youth workers, anyone interested in or working within the mental health field, working with youth or working with Indigenous communities. This is an open forum with something for everyone.

ABOUT MOOD DISORDERS ASSOCIATION OF MANITOBA

Our Mission

Helping Ourselves, Helping Others. The Mood Disorders Association of Manitoba is a self-help organization dedicated to providing support, education and advocacy for those living with a mood disorder, co-occurring disorders or other mental health illnesses. We increase public awareness about mood disorders and empower people to develop hope and recovery. Help yourself or those you love in hope and recovery from mood disorders.

Our Vision

To build an understanding community in the awareness of mood disorders through providing support and recovery to those living with mood disorders. We strive to be a centre of excellence for grassroots community mental health in an open yet confidential atmosphere.
